BANKS AND BANKING, CENTRAL -- UNITED STATES

Ethan Harris has an idea or two for you. In this first in-depth look at Bernanke’s chairmanships of the Fed, Harris, Lehman Brothers’ Chief U.S. Economist, demystifies the policy choice and pronouncements of the Fed chair – and explains how they influence the global economy. Harris’s accessible portrayal also helps you understand and anticipate Bernanke’s decision and communications, putting his actions into clear context.

Harris explains how Bernanke’s academic research and experience shape his choices in the extremely challenging environment he inherited from Alan Greenspan.

Harris dispels myths about Greenspan, realistically defining both the success and errors that set the stage for Bernanke’s chairmanships.
Harris also reevaluates how the Fed itself analyzes and manages the economy. He explains the central bank’s decision-making process, the levers at its disposal, and the specific effects of its decisions — to show in practical term exactly what Fed can and cannot do. Misconceptions and myths surround Bernanke and the Fed. Ben Bernanke’s Fed helps readers gain a much-needed realistic perspective — and judge Bernanke for themselves. (ISBN: 978-1-422-2584-7)

EATING DISORDERS -- PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS

The reason you turn to food when you’re stressed or distressed is that you don’t have better ways of managing life’s ups and downs. According to Karen R. Koenig, an expert on the psychology of eating, you can transform your eating habits — and your life — by developing effective life skills. When you have enhanced skills, you won’t need to turn to mindless eating to make it through the day and will get the best out of life rather than letting life get the best of you. With Koenig’s guidance, you’ll learn how to establish and maintain functional relationships, take care of yourself physically and emotionally, think rationally, and create a passionate, joyful, and meaningful life. When these behaviors take root and become automatic, food becomes what it is meant to be: nourishment and one of life’s many pleasures. (ISBN 978-1-60868-316-1)

ECONOMICS

Introducing Economics traces the history of the subject from the ancient Greeks to the present day. David Orrel and Borin Van Loon bring the contributions of great economics such as Adam Smith, Karl Marx, John Maynard Keynes and Milton Friedman alive and delve into ideas from new areas such as ecological and complexity economics that are revolutionizing the field. (ISBN: 978-184831-215-9)
GLOBALIZATION -- ECONOMIC ASPECTS

In One Economics, Many Recipes, leading economist Dani Rodrik argues that neither globalizers nor anti globalizers have got it right. While economic globalization can be a boon for countries that are trying to dig out of poverty, success usually requires following policies that are tailored to local economic and political realities rather than obeying the dictates of the international globalization establishment. A definitive statement of Rodrik’s original and influential perspective on economic growth and globalization, One Economic, May Recipes show how successful countries craft their own unique strategies – what other countries can learn from them. (ISBN: 13-978-691-12951-8)

MALAY LANGUAGE -- STUDY AND TEACHING

PHILOSOPHY

Beginning with the broadest philosophical issues – theories of existence, knowledge and ethics – Landsburg then turns to a dazzling variety of specific applications. He gives us a mathematical analysis for arguments for the existence of God; explains the real meanings of the Heisenberg uncertainty principle and Godel’s incompleteness theorem; and carefully dissects the meaning of social responsibility on the playground, in the marketplace, and in the voting booth.

Stimulating illuminating, and always surprising. The Big Questions reveals the relationship between the loftiest philosophical quests and our everyday lives. (ISBN: 9781439148228)

SELF-ACTUALIZATION (PSYCHOLOGY) IN WOMEN

It's an unfortunate fact that those who want to change the world so desperately are often those who burn out first. Now is the time for a massive paradigm shift. Let go of the addiction to old behaviours; Tap into your inherent potency as a woman; Learn to 'dance' with adversity, resilience, endurance, confidence, vitality, creativity and passion; Facilitate change that will leave a legacy.

No matter what you do, whether you’re a CEO, a nurse, a scientist, a mother, a teacher, a politician, an entrepreneur, a pilot, an actor, a musician, a chef – you name it! – you express leadership through your unique perspective. (ISBN: 978-1-909623-90-3)
SELF-CONFIDENCE

From break-ups and family fall-outs to career stalls and unexpected losses, life is filled with events and circumstances that can knock you off your feet and leave you feeling stressed, confused and lost. Whether you’re embarking on a career at age 22 or are seeing your children off to college at age 52, If You’re In the Driver’s Seat, Why Are You Lost? gives you the strategies to help you map out your life direction, leading you to the life you want.

Filled with insights, information, and solutions, this book is a practical guide that teaches how to take control and regain personal identity by learning how to manage emotions, stress, health, and other factors keeping you from happiness. Dr. Lawana Gladney acts as your personal coach and provides inspiration with ideas, easy strategies, and sound advice to help you cope with stress and navigate through everyday challenges. Arming you with helpful techniques for letting go of the emotionally destructive people, thoughts, words, and regrets of the past in a manageable way, (ISBN: 978-1-939529-08-4)

WATER -- PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS

“Books are the plane, and the train, and the road. They are the destination, and the journey. They are home.” — Anna Quindlen

“Only a generation of readers will spawn a generation of writers.” — Steven Spielberg

“Reading was my escape and my comfort, my consolation, my stimulant of choice: reading for the pure pleasure of it, for the beautiful stillness that surrounds you when you hear an author's words reverberating in your head.” — Paul Auster

“Think before you speak. Read before you think.” — Fran Lebowitz
